For Immediate Release: Theft of Mail

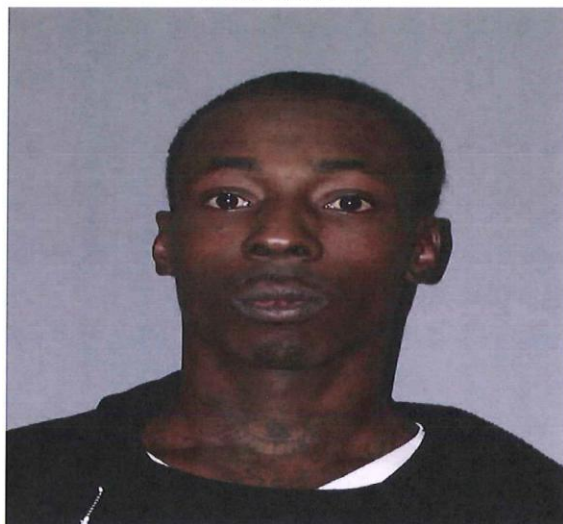

On 12/30/2013 Stratford Officers arrested Kenyata Williams age 32 and Andre Salmon age 31 for larceny and trespass charges after a detective saw them stealing mail from residential mail boxes on East Broadway. Found in their possession was mail from several homes located in the area. Postal Inspectors were notified and responded as the pair may be linked to other mail thefts in the state.

Williams was charged with five counts of larceny in the sixth degree, five counts of criminal trespass and interfering with an officer. He was also found to be on probation and he had an outstanding warrant for armed robbery in the state of Florida.

Salmon was charged with conspiracy to commit larceny in the sixth degree. He was also on probation and was subsequently charged with violation of probation and remanded to custody by probation officers.
