For Immediate Release: Larceny Arrest

On 11-15-2013 a Detective who was working a traffic assignment observed an unidentified male approach a house on Cutspring Road and steal a FED-EX package that had been delivered to the home. The man then left in a Pontiac with another male and a female. The officer followed suspect car to paradise green at which time the suspects fled and attempted to evade the police. The suspect vehicle and occupants were apprehended a short time later on Shepard Street by patrol officers.

The suspects were identified as Antonio Randolph age 46, Darius Miller age 42 both from Bridgeport and Margaret Little age 35 of Stratford. The trio had thrown the stolen package from the vehicle prior to being stopped and the package was recovered by officers.

Investigation determined that Randolph who was the driver also had a warrant for his arrest for failure to appear in court on a prior larceny charge in the Town of Stratford. Randolph used several false names before officers were able to get his true identity. Miler was identified as the person who had gone to the home and stolen the delivery. Little was in the car with both parties.

Randolph was charged for the warrant as well as Conspiracy to Commit Larceny in the Sixth Degree and Reckless Driving. He was held on a $20,000 dollar bond. His court date is 11-26-2013.

Miler was charged with Larceny in the Sixth Degree and failure to have prescription Medications in a Proper Container. Miller was held on a $5000 dollar bond and is scheduled to appear in court on 11-26-2013.

Little was charged with Conspiracy to Commit Larceny in the Sixth Degree. She was released on a promise to appear.

The package was valued at #159 dollars. All residents are advised to be cautious with deliveries especially at this time of the year as thefts such as this are common.
